And that, under the "Strathcona Park Act," being chapter 49 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1911, and amendments thereto, a report and recommendation of British Columbia Power Commission (hereinafter referred to as the "Commission"), dated the first day of April, 1953, has been received, recommending that it be authorized to raise the water-level of and to use for storage purposes that part of Buttle Lake lying within the limits of Strathcona Park:

5. Except as provided hereafter in this paragraph, the Commission shall not have any right, title, or interest in or to any merchantable timber removed under (4) above, all of which shall be the property of the Crown, and all of which shall be sold by the Minister of Lands and Forests at public auction or by sealed tender, but the proceeds of any such sale shall be credited to the Power Commission, except any excess of receipts over and above the cost of logging, clearing, grubbing, disposal of debris, road-building, construction of loading out works, and the delivery of the said merchantable timber to loading out works near the outlet of Buttle Lake.

6. To do all such things as are necessary or advisable for the purpose aforesaid, and for the lawful exercise of the Commission's rights as licensee under the licences aforesaid.

And that the conditions of the Storage Licence, and the said provisions, be adopted as conditions upon which such authority be granted:
